EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

We all are recipients of nature's limitless kindness but most of us remain unaware of it. A drumstick tree in our backyard is one such case in point. This tree was chopped to pieces over 8 months ago as it was supposedly obstructing someone's view from the balcony. Looking at its stump that day, I merely wondered whether it will grow back to its original splendour. My 'sad' moments probably lasted a few minutes as I got busy in household chores. The tree or rather the stump stood firmly on terra firma unmindful of man's egotistic whims and nature's vagaries. We soon forgot that there was once a 'giving tree' in our backyard whose leaves were used to prepare delicious daal, while the nutrient rich drumsticks added an extra zing to the sambar.

The tree, however, did not allow our memory to fade when small leaves started sprouting on its trunk. "Madam, this tree is alive," squealed my maid in delight. I rushed out of my kitchen to partake in her joy as a wonderful sight awaited my eyes. It appeared that the undersized tree was eager to grow back to its full glory. Weeks rolled into months and after weathering the harsh rays of the sun and torrential rains, the tiny stump transformed into a beautiful tree with drumsticks tenderly hanging from each branch, as if beckoning us to savour it. I was amazed to see this tree had grown taller than our two storied building as if to say, 'Now you cannot chop me for obstructing your view'.

This 'giving tree' has become a cynosure of all eyes in our community. We recently got a yield of over 100 drumsticks which I distributed to all and sundry. 'Madam, people were so happy to get such fresh drumsticks, everyone received it with a smile,' my house help remarked.

This reminds me of a quote I read somewhere, 'Take care of the trees, they will take care of you.' In my case, we did not bother to take care of it yet the newly born tree bestowed us with pure air, edible leaves and vegetables. — Rohini S. Murthy in Deccan Herald

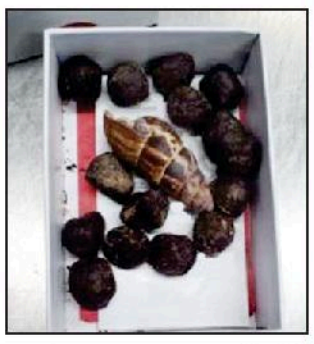
NEWS SPARKLERS

Model wears 'live fish' to walk the ramp

Chennai: In an effort to do something out of the box, a model wore 'live fish' for a fashion show in Chennai and is getting slammed online for using animals as a prop.

The video of the same was shared on social media. In the now-viral video, a model is seen wearing a mermaid-style dress with a pot-like structure attached to it. A person is then seen transferring the small fishes and water into the plastic pot. In another video, she is seen walking the ramp with the fishes inside the pot and her hand over the plastic object.

Giraffe poop seized from traveller at airport



Minnesota: Customs officials in Minnesota seized a box of giraffe faeces from a traveller who arrived from Kenya and said she planned to use the droppings to make a necklace.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection said the Iowa resident was selected for inspection by agriculture specialists upon arriving at Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport from a trip to Kenya.

The CBP specialists seized the box and the contents were destroyed via steam sterilization. CBP said any faeces brought to the United States by an overseas traveller require a veterinary services permit.

"There is a real danger with bringing faecal matter into the U.S.," said LaFonda Sutton-Burke, CBP's director of field operations for the Chicago Field Office.

Yuva Dasara from Oct. 18
Air Show on Oct. 23

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BLU&DM)- Maintaining that this year's Dasara will neither be simple nor grand, but a traditional one in accordance with the Government Guidelines, Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. Rajendra said that the District Administration is expecting a sponsorship of about Rs. 3 to Rs. 4 crore from companies and other establishments.

Addressing a press meet at the Mysore Palace Board in the Palace premises in city this morning, Dr. Rajendra said that 18 Sub-Committees have been formed for overseeing the Dasara events.

Pointing out that MUDA has provided Rs. 10 crore, Kannada and Culture Department - Rs. 15 crore and the Palace Board - Rs. 5 crore for the conduct of Dasara, the DC reiterated that the District Administration is hoping a collective sponsorship of about Rs. 3 to Rs. 4 crore from private parties.

Regarding the Air Show, which is one of the crowd-puller attractions of Dasara, the DC said that the Air Show rehearsal will take place at Bannimantap Torchlight Parade Grounds on Oct. 22 and the actual show of one hour duration will take place at the same venue on Oct. 23 from 4 pm to 5 pm.

Yuva Dasara from Oct. 18 to 21

SP Seema Latkar, who is also the Deputy Special Officer of Yuva Dasara Sub-Committee, said that the 4-day Yuva Dasara will take place at Maharaja's college grounds from Oct. 18 to 21.

DG&IGP reviews Dasara security and surveillance measures

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (RK&BCT)- As the highly-anticipated Dasara festival approaches, Director General and Inspector General of Police (DG&IGP) Alok Mohan has underscored the utmost importance of meticulous arrangements to safeguard the well-being of citizens and to prevent any untoward incidents.

This directive was issued during a meeting of Police officers from Southern Range districts — Mysuru, Mandya, Kodagu, Chamarajanagar and Hassan.

The meeting, which took place at the Office of the City Police Commissioner yesterday, saw the State's top law enforcement official delving into various matters, including a comprehensive review of the crime rate in Mysuru and neighbouring districts.

DG&IGP Alok Mohan arriving at City Police Commissioner's Office at Nazarbad in city yesterday as DIGP (Southern Range) Dr. M.B. Boralingaiah, SP Seema Latkar and other Police Officers look on.

DGP Alok Mohan urged officers to provide enhanced protection to vulnerable segments of the population, particularly women, children, and the elderly. Highlighting the unique challenges posed by the Dasara, which witnesses an influx of thousands of individuals from neighbouring districts and States, Alok Mohan expressed concerns about the potential rise in criminal activities.

After dilly-dallying for 12 years...

Town Hall parking lot
to be operational before Dasara
Mayor, MCC Commr. on inspection-spree

A file photo of the underground parking (white building) at Town Hall premises. Earlier, cars had to park outside as in picture above, but from now on cars can be parked in the underground parking lot.

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (RK&BCT)- Just three days after Commissioner Ashaad-ur-Rahman Shariff of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) conducted a routine Dasara works inspection from Town Hall premises to FTS Circle on Oct. 7, Mayor Shivakumar conducted a second inspection along the same route this morning. The Commissioner and a team of over 25 officials accompanied the Mayor.

While both inspections served routine purposes, today's inspection held a significant announcement: The Town Hall Multi-Level Parking Lot (MLPL) will finally open during this year's Dasara festivities. The official date for the opening is now anticipated from the District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa. This development comes after an exasperating delay of 12 years since the project's commencement in 2011.

Since 2018, the MCC has temporarily opened the MLPL during Dasara as an ad-hoc measure, only to close it later. However, Mayor Shivakumar, Commissioner Shariff and Commissioner Ashaad-ur-Rahman Shariff jointly declared that the MLPL would not be a temporary arrangement this time.

Instead, it will remain open even after Dasara, offering parking space for over 600 vehicles, including 400 cars and 200 two-wheelers, within a 6,000 sq.ft. area. It's worth noting that the building cost has risen substantially from the initial Rs. 10.86 crore to Rs. 23.28 crore.

Mayor Shivakumar and Commissioner Shariff expressed their optimism about the MLPL's full opening this year, given the completion of all works, including the construction of entry and exit ramps, as well as the resolution of water-logging issues. They mentioned that they are waiting for confirmation of the date from the District Minister's Office.

During their inspection, Mayor Shivakumar and Commissioner Shariff shared with reporters that the MCC had allocated a Dasara works grant of Rs. 10 crore, independent of the State grant, which will be used for various civil and beautification projects. These initiatives encompass pothole filling and UGD works.

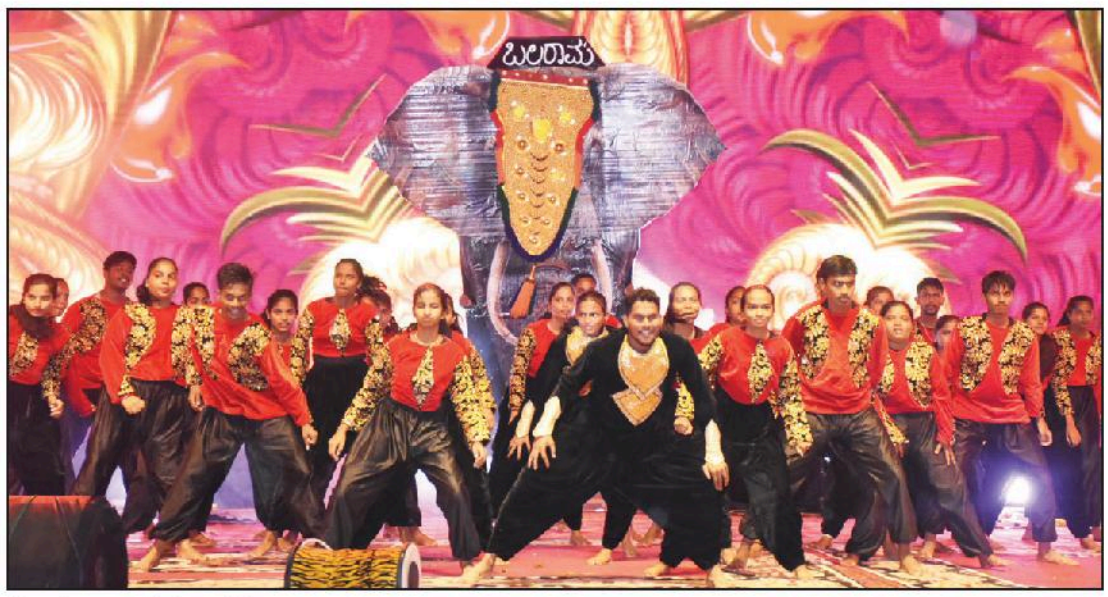
On a rainy evening...

Youths soak in spirit of Dasara Yuva Sambhrama



Mysuru, Oct. 10 (MK&BS)- Youths turned out in good numbers soaking in the spirit of Dasara Yuva Sambhrama, even amid rain at Open Air Theatre, Manasagangothri, in city last evening. As the students from various college troupes exhibited their talent, the audience holding umbrella and chairs above to protect themselves from the downpour enjoyed the evening of dance and music to the hilt.

The programme began with a perfect tribute to celebrated king of erstwhile princely State of Mysore Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar with a dance-drama by the students of Government PU College, Hemmaragala, Nanjangud. The visuals of Durbar Hall of Mysore Palace in the backdrop added a touch of royalty. The students of Nirmala Composite PU College, Pandavapura and several other institutions entertained the gathering with their dance performances.

Dasara veteran Balarama, the elephant which carried Golden Howdah during Jumboo Savari for 14 years, which died recently, came alive with the dance performance by the students of Rathna College of Business Management, Kuvempunagar, for the song 'Dasara Bantu Sadagara Tantu, Alele Savari Aane Mele Ambari...'

The valour of Kadamba King Mayura Varma was aptly recreated by the students of Government First Grade College, Tarikere, Shivamogga.

What set the perfect mood for the rainy evening was the dance-drama by the students of Government First Grade College, Magadi taluk, Ramanagara and Sri Mahadeshwara First Grade College, Kollegal. They danced to the song 'Maayadantha Male Banthanna Madagada Kerege...' and several other catchy songs.

The indigenous art and tradition of Tulu Nadu, the coastal area of the State, was also exhibited with finesse by the students of MMK and SDM College for Women, Mysuru, through 'Pili Dance' (tiger dance) and Yakshagana.

The spirit of Kannada also reverberated with a dance to the song 'Nam Jeeva Kano Kannada...' by the students of S.M. Lingappa College of Education, K.R. Pet. The youths went gaga as they also danced to a folk song 'Udho Udho Yellamma...'

While the students of Government First Grade College, Mandya, worshipped the powerful Goddesses with their dance performance, the students of Government First Grade College, K.R. Nagar, recreated the sequence of 'Draupadi Vastrapaharana' from the epic Mahabharata to the large applause of the gathering.

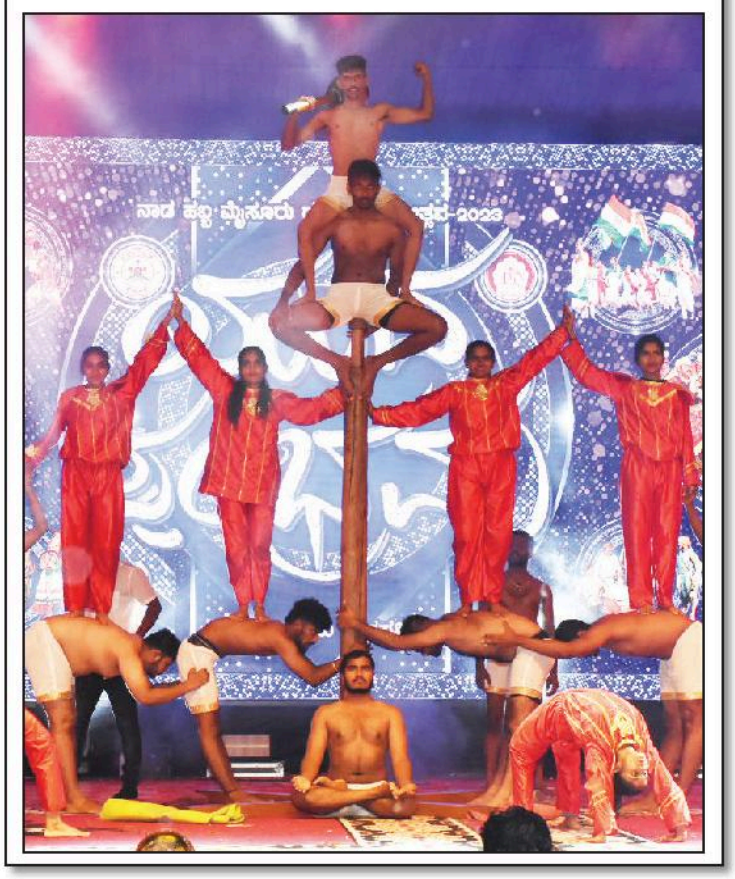
The relevant issue of 'fake news, effects and regulatory measures' was aptly presented by the students of Model Residential Government First Grade College for Women's, Haradanahalli, Holenarasipura, with an appeal not to lend ears to fake news.

The patriotic spirit also ran high with the recital on 'Mera Bharat Mahan' by the students of JSS Polytechnic for Differently Abled, Mysuru. The students of BGS First Grade College, Siddapura, Kodagu, created an awareness on ecological conservation with their dance.

Though rain delayed the start of the cultural programmes, it could not deter the spirit of the young denizens who walked in with umbrella, enjoying every bit of the evening which was a mix of dance and songs that made the third day of Yuva Sambhrama a grand success.

Acrobatics on Mallakambha steal the show

The students of G. Madegowda Institute of Naturopathy and Yogic Sciences, Maddur, stole the show with their acrobatics on Mallakambha, for a song 'Jai Bhajarangi.' The audience watched in awe as they performed various postures on Mallakambha.



VOICE OF THE READER

Need more flights from Mysuru; make flying attractive

Sir,

There has been a noticeable decline in the growth of the Mysuru Airport over the past few months, which is a concerning trend for a city like Mysuru, known for its significance in tourism.

This downturn can be attributed to the cancellation and reduction of flights. Notably, flights to destinations like Mangaluru, Goa and Kochi have been discontinued. Additionally, there is a lack of adequate publicity in the media regarding flight schedules and information.

To address this issue, it is imperative that Mysuru Airport introduces new flight routes, such as ones connecting to Hubballi and Pune. These connections could facilitate easier access to major cities like Mumbai and Delhi, reducing the need for time-consuming travel to Bengaluru's Kempegowda International Airport (KIA). Such improvements could also benefit international travellers.

Another crucial aspect to consider is the cost of flying. Reducing the cost of air travel could potentially stimulate the positive growth of the Mysuru Airport. It is my hope that the relevant authorities take note of these concerns and work towards enhancing the Airport's accessibility and attractiveness to travellers.

Ayushman Bharat Scheme for Kidney Transplantation

15 BPL patients undergo surgery at Sigma Hospital

Dr. K.M. Madappa, Consultant Urologist and Kidney Transplant Surgeon, Sigma Hospital, addressing a press meet at the Hospital in city yesterday as Dr. D.N. Somanna, Consultant Urologist, Dr. Aniketh Prabhakar, Consultant Nephrologist, S. Gnanashankar, Managing Director of Sigma and Dr. Rajeshwari Madappa, Chief Paediatrician-cum-Hospital Director look on.

Mysuru, Oct. 10- A 34-year-old male farmer from K.R. Pet Taluk underwent a kidney transplant on Sept. 27 at Sigma Hospital in Kuvempunagar, Mysuru, in which his wife donated her one kidney.

Post-surgery, patient is now doing well and able to do all his routine activities without worrying about need for dialysis and dietary restrictions. With this transplant, Sigma Hospital's Nephro-Urology Department completes 35 kidney transplants in last 3 years with patients from Mysuru and neighbouring districts.

The kidney transplant team consisted of Dr. K.M. Madappa, Consultant Urologist and Kidney Transplant Surgeon. A pioneer of kidney transplant in Mysuru having performed the first transplant of Mysuru district, he has the experience of 350 kidney transplants till date.

Dr. D.N. Somanna, Consultant Urologist and Kidney Transplant Surgeon with 7 years' experience; Dr Aniketh Prabhakar, Consultant Nephrologist, Kidney Transplant Specialist and lead Nephrologist.

Addressing a press meet at the Hospital premises in city yesterday, Dr. K.M. Madappa said that the Hospital offers affordable and high-quality services for patients seeking kidney transplants.

Sigma Hospital is also recognised by Arogya Karnataka Ayushman Bharat Scheme and the only hospital in Mysuru actively offering kidney transplant services under this Scheme, he said.

Till now 15 patients have benefitted from this scheme for BPL card holders and it includes surgery for kidney recipients and their medications completely free of cost.

The Hospital even runs a Deceased Donor (Brain Dead) transplant programme which is highly affordable and operates with Jeevasarthakate programme of Government of Karnataka and considers transfer of registrations from other hospitals. Sigma Hospital has also performed 6 successful kidney transplants with donor and recipient having mismatched blood groups and with the help of advanced techniques. A different blood group is no longer a barrier for kidney transplant, the doctors claimed. Sigma Hospital specialises in Laparoscopic donor surgeries which is one-of-a-kind in Mysuru. It ensures faster recovery, reduced pain and minimal scar on abdomen.

Abhimanyu begins training with Wooden Howdah

Carries about 800-kg weight from Palace to Torchlight Parade Grounds amidst rain

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (SBD&KS)- With the famed Jumboo Savari scheduled to take place on Vijayadashami (Oct. 24), Abhimanyu, who will be carrying the 750-kg Golden Howdah with the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari in it, began his training of carrying the 280-kg Wooden Howdah, the replica of the Golden Howdah, amidst heavy rains yesterday evening.

He carried over 830-kg weight, which included Gaadhi-Namdha, ropes, 280-kg Wooden Howdah and 500-kg sand bags, from the Mysore Palace to the Torchlight Parade Grounds at Bannimantap with ease.

When Abhimanyu reached the Palace Gates at about 5.45 pm, heavy rain began to lash. At about 5.10 pm yesterday, Abhimanyu was led near the residence of the Mysore royal family, where a crane has been installed and puja was performed to the Wooden Howdah. Gaadhi-Namdha (cushion-like material) was then placed on Abhimanyu's back which were fastened with ropes and the Wooden Howdah was then placed on Gaadhi-Namdha with the help of the crane and was tied. Later, sand bags were placed inside the Howdah. To prevent Gaadhi-Namdha from getting wet due to rain, plastic sheets were covered.

Abhimanyu, who didn't seem perturbed about the rain and the sound of thunder, began to walk majestically along with other Dasara elephants on the Jumboo Savari route to reach the Torchlight Parade Grounds at about 6.15 pm. Before the commencement of the training, CF Dr. Malathi Priya, DCF-Wildlife Saurabh Kumar, Hunsur DCF Seema, RFO Santosh Hugar, Veterinarian Mujeeb Rahman and others performed puja.

Abhimanyu was then brought to the spot where flowers will be showered to the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari, placed inside the Golden Howdah on Vijayadashami Day, where he gave a salute. Training on carrying weight was held amidst rains so that the Dasara elephants get acclimatised to rains in case there is a sudden downpour on Jumboo Savari day.

People stood on either sides of the Jumboo Savari route to have a glimpse of Abhimanyu, who will be carrying Golden Howdah for the fourth time this year.

Don't permit Karaoke in Dasara events, professional artistes urge SP

Mysore Artistes Association, led by its General Secretary Gurudutt, submitting a memorandum to SP Seema Latkar, who is also the Deputy Special Officer of the Dasara Yuva Sambhrama Sub-Committee.

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BS)- Mysore Artistes Association has urged the Superintendent of Police (SP), Mysuru District and Director of Kannada and Culture Department not to give permission to Karaoke programmes during the forthcoming Dasara cultural programmes.

The artistes, led by Association General Secretary Gurudutt, who submitted a memorandum to SP Seema Latkar, said: "By permitting such Karaoke songs rendered in the backdrop of music track, it will be a blot on the rich Dasara music tradition of Mysuru that has a history spanning several hundreds of years. Any style of music concerts like Hindustani, Karnataka classical, light music, folk, orchestra, tala vadya, singing, devotional songs, devaranama, dance-drama, bharatanatyam, theatre songs, raitha geethe, Nada Geethe (State Anthem) are rendered along with percussionists. Most of the artistes are dependent on such events, backed by the constant encouragement of crores of music connoisseurs. The erstwhile Maharajas of Mysore have made enormous contributions to the field of art in Mysuru considered as the 'Native of Artistes'."

So, the Department of Kannada & Culture and Department of Tourism should work towards conserving the rich tradition of music rather than spoiling the same by allowing Karaoke singers. Such kind of musical renditions are already banned in Madikeri Dasara and Government programmes in Mangaluru and Shivamogga, added Gurudutt.

Association President Raghunath said: "Music should be practiced in a prescribed way that is integral to fine tuning the nuances. Nobody is against amateur artistes organising the programmes as per their benefit but Karaoke should not be allowed in Government events and those conducted by professional artistes, including Dasara cultural programmes. The District Administration and Kannada & Culture Department should sit up and take note, as several professional artistes have lost the opportunity to perform due to the onset of Karaoke events."

If such a trend continues in Government-sponsored events too, the professional artistes will fade into oblivion in the coming days. It will also affect those budding artistes looking for a career in music. On the flip side, hundreds of artistes have been bidding a good bye to the field of music, rued Raghunath.

Artistes Roshan Surya, Rajesh Padiyar, Harsha Prabhakar, Ravikumar, Pradeep, Ravikiran and Hanumantha were present.

Untimely rain disrupts normal life

Mysuru, Bengaluru and Kodagu receive heavy rain catching people off-guard

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BLU&BS)- Even though the monsoon has failed this year pushing the State towards drought, the sudden rain disrupted normal life in Mysuru, Bengaluru, Kodagu and several other regions of the State yesterday.

The monsoon season usually begins in the month of June and ends in September, but this time it had a delayed start at the fag end of June. But the rainfall was below normal forecast, leaving the water bodies including lakes and tanks dried, bringing down the water levels at dams. However, even as the monsoon season is over, the parts of the State have witnessed unseasonal rain, which the weather experts call as 'Monsoon Withdrawal'.

The people, especially vehicle riders who were caught off-guard due to sudden downpour, had to struggle wading through water-logged roads. Southern Kodagu, which was witnessing drizzle for the past three days, received the rain in Virajpet and Napoklu parts. As the weekly shandy is organised on every Monday at Napoklu, the traders and customers alike, who were unprepared for the rain, had to struggle a while to protect themselves from getting drenched.

It also rained heavily at Murnad, Kottamudi, Kondangeri too, with rain water flooding the roads. The rain, accompanied by huge cloud bursts, lasted for two hours, with the weatherman predicting 1 mm rainfall in the day. On the other hand, Harangi Dam saw an increase in the inflow of water. "Whenever there is a surge in temperature at Indian Ocean, the clouds form and move towards India, in the form of a wind with heavy velocity, causing heavy rain in those parts of the country. However this time, as the rise in temperature level was witnessed at Pacific Ocean, the rainy clouds moved towards Australia and other countries. While those regions witnessed a good spell of rain, several States including Karnataka in our country had to reel under drought," said Dr. Sumanth Kumar, Assistant Researcher, Field Division, Naganahalli Organic Farming Research Station, Mysuru.

"The monsoon season is expected to be a failure next year too, with no weather report on pre-monsoon rain received from the central office yet," said Dr. Sumanth quoting weather experts.

Cops yet to decide on Mahisha Dasara, Chamundi Betta Chalo

City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth, who also addressed the press meet, said that the Department is yet to take a decision on the pleas submitted by the organisers of Mahisha Dasara, who want to celebrate the event atop Chamundi Hill on Oct. 13 and the 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' campaign, which is opposing it.

Pointing out that the Police are studying various aspects before deciding on granting or rejecting the pleas, Ramesh said that the Police will however take action against anyone who violate the law.

Zilla Panchayat (ZP) CEO K.M. Gayathri, Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya and other officials were present at the press meet.

Mayor, MCC Commissioner on inspection-spree

Upon reaching Chikkagadiyara (Dufferin Clock), Commissioner Shariff unveiled the plans to enhance the area with London tiles. The proposal entails the installation of artistically designed tiles from London throughout the Circle, allowing the hosting of cultural events daily. The Mayor, in response, urged roadside vendors and hawkers around Chikkagadiyara to temporarily vacate during Dasara to preserve the area's beauty.

Furthermore, the MCC intends to reopen the presently locked subway connecting Dhanvantri Road and Sayyaji Rao Road. This will involve cleaning the subway, fixing the lighting, and assigning security personnel to deter anti-social activities.

The Mayor-Commissioner inspection, which commenced at 7 am, concluded at 10:30 am near Bannimantap Grounds.

Also present during the inspection were MCC Superintending Engineer K.T. Sindhu, Executive Engineers Nagaraj and Mahesh, Development Officers and Environment Engineers from their respective zones.

DG&IGP reviews Dasara security

DG&IGP Alok Mohan called for heightened vigilance, especially in the surveillance of individuals with prior criminal records arriving from other regions, with a particular focus on railway stations and bus terminals.

He stressed the need for comprehensive security measures, ensuring that no security lapses occur. With the provision of free bus services for women on government buses during Dasara, an increased female presence is expected. In response, the DG&IGP recommended the deployment of additional female Police personnel at bus terminals, railway stations, and event venues hosting Dasara-related activities.

Police have been instructed to craft a comprehensive security plan to ensure the seamless execution of Dasara events, with a strong emphasis on vigilance and incident prevention. Duty rosters have to be meticulously organised to ensure effective deployment.

Given the prominent presence of dignitaries such as the Chief Minister, Deputy Chief Minister, Governor, Supreme Court and High Court judges during the Dasara procession, stringent security measures are imperative. Fire safety protocols and ambulance services have to be meticulously arranged to ensure swift responses to any emergencies.

Strict vigilance

Alok Mohan implored Police officers to maintain unwavering vigilance during the procession, both at the Palace premises, streets, junctions, and roads, as well as in the vicinity of Banimantap. He encouraged the utilisation of modern technology for monitoring and surveillance, emphasising its potential to thwart criminal activities and disruptions.

The importance of strict adherence to security protocols to maintain an incident-free festival was reiterated. Coordinated efforts between the DGP office, SP office, Commissioner's Office, and all relevant Departments have been stressed to ensure the peaceful conduct of the Dasara festival.

The DGP underscored the significance of effective security arrangements and urged Police personnel to remain vigilant, particularly during nighttime events, ensuring the maintenance of law and order throughout the festival.

Southern Range DIGP Dr. M.B. Boralingaiah, Mysuru Superintendent of Police Seema Latkar, City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth, DCPs M. Muthuraj and S. Jahnavi, SPs of Mandya, Hassan, Kodagu and Chamarajanagar were present.

Constitution does not allow insult of other religions: MP Simha

MP Pratap Simha, MLA T.S. Srivatsa, Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, BJP leaders M.V. Ravishankar, Mohan, Vaneesh, Somasundar, and others seen releasing 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' posters yesterday.

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (PM&BCT)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has affirmed his readiness, along with BJP party, to confront challenges in order to safeguard the history, civilisation, culture and religious beliefs of Mysuru.

This stance comes in response to a segment of society tarnishing deities under the pretext of democracy and Constitutional principles. The MP made these remarks during a press briefing at the BJP Office yesterday, where he unveiled posters for the 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' campaign, aimed at countering the 'Mahisha Dasara' on Oct. 13.

Simha expressed concerns over the distress caused to Hindu sentiments due to 'Mahisha Dasara' celebration. He pointed out that a small group of individuals had formed an organisation and was referring to Goddess Chamundi as a demon. Simha cautioned that if no action was taken promptly, this situation could escalate further.

Emphasising the importance of unity, Simha urged everyone to support the cause, irrespective of their ideologies or beliefs. He questioned whether the Constitution grants anyone the right to insult other religions while guaranteeing the right to practise one's own faith.

"Under the guise of 'Mahisha Dasara,' these individuals are insulting a Hindu Goddess revered by millions. Even the family members of Mahisha's devotees offer prayers to Goddess Chamundeshwari," MP Simha added.

Responding to claims that 'Mahisha Dasara' had a 50-year history, Pratap Simha refuted this assertion, stating that it distorted historical facts. He highlighted that the celebration had previously occurred during Siddharamaiah's tenure as CM in 2016, thus contradicting the notion of a 50-year tradition.

Mahishasura's statue covered for painting works

As painting works of Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill and surrounding structures are taken up ahead of Dasara, the statue of Mahishasura atop the Hill has been covered, said sources in the District Administration. Police have also clarified that the statue is covered as it will also be given a new coat of paint like in the previous years.

BJP seeks Police nod for 'Chamundi Betta Chalo'

Celebration to be called 'Mahishotsava' instead of 'Mahisha Dasara', says Urilinga Peddi Mutt Seer

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (SPN,BLU& BCT)- Even as Chief Minister Siddharamaiah clarified that the State Government has never officially celebrated 'Mahisha Dasara' and it is at the discretion of the District Administration to allow or cancel its celebration, a delegation from the BJP met City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth on Sunday. They sought permission to conduct 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' on Oct. 13 (8 am), which coincides with the proposed 'Mahisha Dasara.'

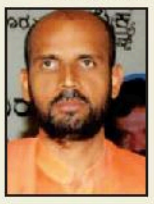
As Mysuru Dasara approaches, celebration of 'Mahisha Dasara' by a section of society has sparked controversy. Since 2015, a segment of Dalits, rationalists and progressive activists had been observing 'Mahisha Dasara.' However, when BJP came to power, this was halted.

The controversy arises from Mahisha Dasara Acharana Samiti's call to hold Mahisha Dasara on Oct. 13, just two days before Mysuru Dasara.

In a memorandum submitted to the City Top Cop, the BJP delegation, led by MLA T.S. Srivatsa and Mayor Shivakumar, stated that on Oct. 13 at 8 am, thousands of people are expected to participate in 'Chamundi Betta Chalo'. BJP is protesting Mahisha Dasara, alleging that it denigrates Goddess Chamundeshwari and glorifies the demon Mahishasura.

Dasara has been celebrated for over 500 years and worshipping Goddess Durga during these nine nights, known as Navarathri, is a tradition followed by millions of people and 'Mahisha Dasara', according to BJP leaders, is perceived as an insult to Goddess Chamundeshwari and her devotees. In recent years, certain individuals have initiated 'Mahishasura Dasara,' which is not mentioned in the Puranas, they claimed in the memorandum and said that this movement aims to disrupt social harmony.

Seer clarifies on celebrations



Meanwhile, Urilinga Peddi Mutt Seer Sri Jnanaprakash Swamiji emphasised on Sunday that Mahisha Dasara is not meant to oppose Dasara. Instead, it's an independent celebration. He stated that it was incorrect for the organisers to refer to Chamundi Hill as 'Mahisha Hill' in the event invitation.

Swamiji also mentioned that they plan to change the name of the celebration to 'Mahishotsava' in the future instead of 'Mahisha Dasara.' They have decided not to compete with Nada Habba Dasara and Goddess Chamundeshwari during their celebration. Their intention is to remember Goddess Chamundeshwari during 'Mahisha Dasara.'

He asserted that they would celebrate without engaging in confrontation with anyone, but at the same time, they would not seek to hurt the sentiments of others. The Seer mentioned that they would not obstruct the celebrations of others, and similarly, others should not hinder the 'Mahisha Dasara' celebration.

Bike rally from Ashokapuram to Mahishasura statue on Oct. 13

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (GA&DM)- Former Mayor Purushotham announced at a press conference on Saturday that to mark 'Mahisha Dasara' on Oct. 13, a bike rally will commence from Ashokapuram and proceed to the Mahishasura statue atop Chamundi Hill. Purushotham also serves as the President of Mahisha Dasara Acharana Samiti.

A stage programme will be held at Town Hall, inaugurated by writer and former Minister B.T. Lalitha Nayak. Urilinga Peddi Mutt Seer Sri Jnanaprakash Swamiji, historian Talakad Chikkarangegowda, activist Dr. J.S. Patil, former Principal B.C. Indiramma, High Court Advocate H. Mohankumar, writer Prof. K.S. Bhagwan, former University of Mysore faculty Prof. Mahesh Chandra Guru, writers Siddaswamy and Dr. Krishnamurthy Chamaram will be present.

Purushotham clarified that they do not oppose the worship of Goddess Chamundeshwari. The 'Mahisha Dasara' celebrations have been conducted by Dalit activist Mantelingaiah since 1973 and this year marks the 50th celebration. However, the celebration gained prominence after the publication of the book 'Mahisha Mandala' in 2015, although there was a brief interruption.

Purushotham demanded that Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, who announced a 'Chamundi Betta Chalo' on Oct. 13 to counter 'Mahisha Dasara,' be detained by the Police.

Urilinga Peddi Mutt Seer Sri Jnanaprakash Swamiji stated that they are followers of Buddha and their primary objective is to spread peace. "We have filed a complaint against those who have threatened to disrupt 'Mahisha Dasara' and will take legal action against the District Administration and the Police if our complaint is not addressed," he added.

Somaiah Maleyur, Siddaswamy, Krishnamurthy Chamaram and Dyavappa Nayaka were also present at the press conference.

WORD OF THE DAY

Tenebrous

Pronunciation: TEN-uh-brus.
Meaning: Tenebrous is a formal word that is often used as a synonym of gloomy. It also can be used to describe dark, unlit places (as in "the tenebrous abyss") or things that are difficult to understand (as in "a tenebrous tangle of lies").
Origin: Tenebrous can mean both "obscure" and "murky," but its history is crystal clear. Etymologists know that the word comes from the Latin noun tenebrae, meaning "darkness." Tenebrous has been used in English since the 15th century, and in subsequent centuries has been joined by some interesting and even less common relations. Tenebrionid is the name that may be given to any of at least 20,000 species of mostly nocturnal beetles, also called darkling beetles, many of whom love inhabiting dark places. Tenebrism refers to a style of painting — associated especially with the Italian painter Caravaggio — in which most of the figures are engulfed in shadow while some are dramatically illuminated by concentrated light. And let's not forget the terrific tenebrific, a tenebrous synonym.
Example: "On the heels of Greig Fraser's spectacular work on Dune, the cinematographer gives the film a moody, tenebrous look to match the tortured pit of Batman's soul, and production designer James Chinlund's world-building is first-rate, weaving together elements from real cities and sets to form a Gotham that resembles New York while establishing its own gritty, gothic identity, pulsing with menace and mystery." —David Rooney, The Hollywood Reporter, 28 Feb. 2022.

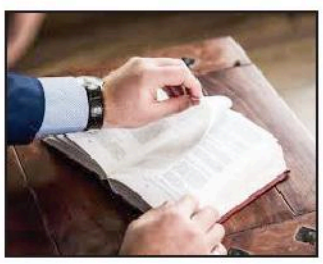
THE ODD WORD

Talar

Ankle-length robe.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Turn over a new leaf



Meaning: To 'Turn over a new leaf' means to start over, to act in a different manner or change your attitude about something.
Origin: Way back in the 16th century, pages in books were referred to as leaves. So turning over a new leaf meant that one was turning to a blank page. This idiom was used to signify a major change in behaviour, or a new stage in life.
Example: "After years of drifting from job to job, Danny turned over a new leaf and got himself a steady gig."
